

2026 Pledge Summary as of 1/12/26

Every pledge is an act of faith.

It is not about figures on a chart, but about offering what we have so the Church may continue to pray, serve, teach, and welcome all who come.

If you have not yet submitted a 2026 pledge, please prayerfully consider doing so.

Together, we build not only a budget - but a living parish in Christ.

Thank you for your generosity and love.

St. GEORGE

Antiochian Orthodox Christian Church
كنيسة القديس جاورجيوس الانطاكية الارثوذكسية

Est. 1927 - Preparing for Our Centennial 2027

GOSPEL - LUKE 17:12-19

Ten men cried out for mercy.

Ten were healed by the compassion of Christ.

But only one returned - to give thanks.

This Gospel reminds us that healing is a gift, but gratitude is a response.

The Lord does not ask for many words - only a heart that remembers, returns, and glorifies God.

St. Anthony the Great, the Father of Monasticism, teaches us that the path to freedom and joy is found in wholehearted repentance, prayer, and trust in God.

By leaving everything for Christ, he discovered that nothing is lacking when God is our treasure.

"I no longer fear God, but I love Him; for perfect love casts out fear."

WELCOME! (Ahlan wa Sahlan!) أهلاً وسهلاً!

We are blessed to have you with us today. Whether this your first visit or your hundredth, you are part of our family in Christ.

In the Orthodox tradition, only Baptized & Chrismated Orthodox Christians who have prepared themselves may receive Holy Communion. All are warmly invited to share in the blessed bread (Antidoron) and the love of our parish.

"Welcome to St. George - May you find here a home of faith, hope and love."

St. Luke. (17:12-19) - Tone 6/Eothinon 9

Sunday after the Theophany of Christ
Theodosios the Great, head of monasteries (Cenobiarch)

RESURRECTIONAL APOLYTIKION IN TONE SEVEN

Thou didst shatter death by Thy Cross, Thou didst open paradise to the thief; Thou didst turn the sadness of the ointment-bearing women into joy. And didst bid Thine Apostles proclaim a warning, that Thou hast risen O Christ, granting to the world the Great Mercy.

APOLYTIKION OF SS. ATHANASIUS AND CYRIL IN TONE THREE

Shining forth with works of Orthodoxy, * ye quenched every false belief and teaching * and became trophy-bearers and conquerors. * And since ye made all things rich with true piety, * greatly adorning the Church with magnificence, * Athanasius and wise Cyril, ye justly found Christ God, * Who through your prayers doth grant Great Mercy unto all.

KONTAKION OF THE PRESENTATION OF CHRIST IN TONE ONE

Thou, O Christ God, Who by Thy Birth, didst sanctify the Virgin’s womb, and, as is meet, didst bless Simeon’s arms, and didst also come to save us; preserve Thy fold in wars, and confirm them whom Thou didst love, for Thou alone art the Lover of mankind.

APOLYTIKION OF ST. GEORGE IN TONE FOUR

As deliverer of captives and defender of the poor, healer of the infirm, champion of kings, victorious Great Martyr George intercede with Christ our God to save our souls.

THE EPISTLE

Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our Fathers.
For Thou are justified in all that Thou hast done for us.
The Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Hebrews. (13:7-16)

Brethren, remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the Word of God; consider the outcome of their life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings; for it is well that the heart be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited their adherents. We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through His own blood. Therefore, let us go forth to Him outside the camp and bear the abuse He endured. For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city, which is to come. Through Him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge His Name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

THE GOSPEL

The reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke. (17:12-19)

At that time, as Jesus entered a village, He was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices and said, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.” When He saw them He said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, giving Him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus said, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” And He said to him, “Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well.”

From the Desk of Fr. Habib living the Gospel with Sophia

Beloved in Christ,

In today's Gospel, ten lepers receive what they desperately asked for — healing. Their bodies are restored, their lives renewed. Yet only one comes back. Only one pauses. Only one falls at the feet of Christ in thanksgiving.

And to that one, Jesus says something deeper than healing: “Your faith has saved you.”

Gratitude completes the miracle.

So much of our prayer is asking — and rightly so. But the Church also teaches us to return, again and again, to say thank You. Every Divine Liturgy is Eucharist — thanksgiving. Every Sunday is our chance to be that one who comes back.

May we not forget the mercies already given.

May we not rush past grace.

And may our lives become a living “thank You” to God.

With love in Christ,

Fr. Habib

The Thankful Leper

In today’s Gospel, Jesus heals ten lepers.
All ten are made well. But only one comes back to say “Thank You.”

Jesus notices.

Being thankful is important to God. When we remember to thank Him - for our family, our church, our food, and our health - we grow closer to Him.

“Orthodoxy: The Way to the Kingdom”

Series: “Growing in God’s Garden”

From Eden to Antioch and from Antioch to Here

Our journey began in Eden, where humanity was created for communion with God to walk with Him and live in His love.

After the fall, God did not abandon His creation. Through the Patriarchs and the Prophets, He prepared the way for healing and restoration.

In the fullness of time, Christ came - the New Adam, the Healer of our broken humanity. Through His Cross and Resurrection, the way back to life was opened.

From Jerusalem, the faith spread outward, and in Antioch, believers were first called Christians. There, the Church learned how to live the Gospel in the world - to worship, to teach, to serve, and to love.

But the story did not end in Antioch.

From Antioch, the faith traveled - across lands and generations - until it came here.

It lives in our Divine Liturgy, in our prayers, in our parish, and in the lives we offer to God each day.

This series now comes to a close, but the journey continues.

From Eden... to Antioch... and now, to us.

As we move forward, we continue this journey together in Orthodoxy: The Way to the Kingdom.
